Friendship, the Key

... a simple "ugg" before words were known
... a coyly smiling medieval maid
... a lady's favor for a courtly knight
... madrigal of a French troubador
... comradeship by the founders of a new nation
... a pipe of peace passed by red skins
... racial barriers crushed by tolerance
... treaties dedicated to world peace
... culmination in the handshake of world powers

FRIENDSHIP'S symbol has changed as the history of man has progressed ; yet the structure of our civilization has been built upon the meaning of this word. Friendship is the firm bond which ties the loyalties of men together so that a common goal will be achieved. When man's ideal of a peaceful co-existence throughout the world is realized, friendship will be the arbitrator.

—J. A. LOCKHART

There can be no Friendship where there is no Freedom.
Friendship loves a Free Air, and will not be fenced up in straight and narrow Enclosures. —Penn.

Doctor Lois B. Knox

Dean of Girls

1919—1954

Because she opened doors we were not strong enough to pull, because by an encouraging word she impelled us to continue fighting, because by her smile she made the way for new students brighter, and because her mere presence cast a stimulating glow, with gratitude we dedicate this book to Doctor Lois B. Knox.

SENIOR PLAY, "CURIOUS SAVAGE" NOV. 19-20

The Senior class got behind its play, "The Curious Savage," by John Patrick, in full force this week as all the various committees met and started work. Sally Beyer, class vice-president, is in general charge of the play. The cast has started rehearsing under Mr. Herbert Odgen, director. Carolyn Bean portrays the lead role of Ethel Savage. After much mixup over conflicting dates the play was definitely set for the 19 and 20 of November at 8:15. The tickets cost $1.00 for general admission, and $1.50 for patrons.

Dear Bill,
Best wishes for the future and always. You know, you really throw water on me first.
Well anyway, Best wishes again.
Jackie.

Hi ya there,
Well, now that you made
it & will probably graduate
you can leave room for us Juniors.
No sudden! It's been great knowing you & I hope it will continue.
Be good, Keezle
